Student Conference for Research and Creative Arts

This program provides an array of invaluable services for UHCL students. UHCL students from any discipline – as well as students from other colleges and universities – are provided the opportunity to present their original research projects and works in a supportive, academic/professional setting at the Student Conference for Research and Creative Arts. Numerous faculty members have incorporated the conference and its presentations into their course curriculum by either requiring students to present at the conference or attend and/or volunteer at the conference – effectively bridging the divide between student services and academics at UHCL. Not only does the conference give students the experience of serious academic presentation before their peers, but it also provides students not presenting the opportunity to learn from their peers by simply attending the conference. The conference engages the diverse campus community in thoughtful discussion on any array of topics – an activity that echoes UHCL’s own mission statement.

University Residence Hall

Living on campus involves so much more than just having a place to sleep. Student Housing and Residential Life can provide a "home away from home" that fosters academic excellence and personal development in an inclusive and engaged community. The Residence Hall becomes your space. Your hangout. Your place to relax, study, eat, sleep, socialize and have fun. Our Residence Hall also can give you the opportunity to connect with others, engage in your education outside of the classroom, and learn more about yourself. We want you to find your place at UHCL, a place that challenges you to be a better person and supports your aspirations.
The new Residence Hall opening in fall 2019 can offer all comforts of home, with the added bonus of neighbors who attend class with you and could even become your best friends. The layout of the Residence Hall allows the bedroom living spaces to be separate from open and airy Grand Community Lounge, where you can mingle and hang out with others. And it is close to everything on campus with the new Recreation and Wellness Center next door and classes are just a short walk away. The hall is comprised of suite-style rooms and a limited number of single rooms with a private bathroom. The suites are either a double room with two residents sharing the room or a single room connected by a bathroom.

You'll have no need to worry about replacing a light bulb, setting up utilities, or bothering with monthly bills. When you live in the Residence Hall, your semester payment through student accounts covers electricity, water, sewer and garbage, cable TV in the lounges, laundry, and high-speed internet (wireless and wired). In addition, living on campus means that you have a maintenance staff on-site to keep things running at optimal levels. Resident advisers, who are peer leaders, will live on each floor and are supervised by a Residential Hall Coordinator (RHC). The RHC is a full-time staff member who also lives in the building to offer support and is trained to handle issues that may arise while living on campus.
